

KENTUCKY WILDFIRE UPDATE

Per Kentucky Emergency Management, the following information is up to date as of Thursday, Nov. 9, at 10:30 a.m.

Fires have been most active in the following counties:

- Bell
- Breathitt
- Floyd
- Harlan
- Knott
- Letcher
- Martin
- Owsley
- Pike

Acreage of fires:

- 9,189.5 acres of active fires
- 489.1 acres of controlled fires
- 4,346.7 acres of contained fires

Fires of concern, either by size or potential:

- |                   |                  |             |
|-------------------|------------------|-------------|
| • Knox County     | Alex Creek Road  | 2,582 acres |
| • Bell County     | Bradford Town    | 1,850 acres |
| • Pike County     | Sidney           | 1,417 acres |
| • Lawrence County | Milo             | 1,032 acres |
| • Harlan County   | Yocum Creek Road | 1,000 acres |
| • Bell County     | Baker Branch     | 700 acres   |

There are 314 active firefighters engaged.

Local states of emergency have been declared in Harlan County (written) and Letcher County (verbal).